As of 1/19/16, this is a draft of my schedule. I'm not entirely sure how best to manage the late-afternoon class. It depends on how many students are coming in after 5:30 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. If it turns out that people are hanging around, asking questions or doing CAS work on a classroom PC, this office block may be extended.

Drop-ins are welcome, any old time. My door is often closed, because I'm recording video. Just knock, and I can break off within seconds, and pick up where I left off, pretty easily, so don't be scared off by a closed door or my wearing a headset, when you peek in.
